Agreement

Each collective bargaining agreement entered into by the Board with a duly recognized exclusive representative shall constitute a commitment by the Board to the provisions of the agreement for its duration. Amendments to the agreement shall be duly executed in writing by both parties.

The provisions of the collective bargaining agreement shall be binding on the Board and on all employees covered by the agreement. Policies or regulations of the Board which are in conflict with specific provisions of the collective bargaining agreement shall not be binding on those employees who are covered by the terms of such agreement.
