

Classified Personnel

Publication or Creation of Materials

All classified employees who plan to submit any written article for publication in professional journals, newsletters, etc. in which the schools, policies or activities of the District are mentioned shall submit a copy of said article to the Superintendent for clearance prior to submission for publication.