Free Health and Literacy Fair

ORANGE, Calif., April 28, 2008 – Orange Unified School District will hold a free Health and Literacy Fair at Esplanade Elementary School, 382 N. Esplanade Street, on May 10, 2008.

The focus of the Health and Literacy Fair is on families with children ages 0-5. Representatives from more than 30 health and social service organizations will be in attendance. The health component will include blood pressure and diabetes checks, height and weight measurements, dental screenings, and immunizations. There will also be a literacy component that provides free books, reading activities for the children, and reading tips for parents. The event is supported by 50 volunteer parents, students, school staff and community members.

The Orange Unified School District is located at 1401 North Handy Street in Orange, California.
