State Athletic Directors Association Honors Tom Fox

ORANGE, CA (April 10, 2014) - Villa Park High School Athletic Director Tom Fox was selected as the CIF Southern Section Athletic Director of the Year by the California State Athletic Directors Association (CSADA) for 2014. The CIF Southern Section is comprised of over 580 public and private high school athletic programs in Southern California.

Fox will be recognized along with other award winners from around the state at a gala dinner to be held in San Diego on April 12th as a part of the 46th annual CSADA Conference.

Involved in high school athletics as both a coach and an administrator for 28 years, Fox has overseen the athletic department at Villa Park High School since 2004. He has been secretary of Orange County Athletic Directors Association (OCADA) since 2008, and has served as a Century League statistician, commissioner, and president over the years.

“Tom Fox is an outstanding Athletic Director in every sense of the word. He has done an incredible job leading the athletic programs at Villa Park High School, as well as serving in several important roles with the OCADA and on various committees within the CIF Southern Section. Tom is truly deserving of this recognition and I congratulate him on all of his accomplishments,” said CIF Southern Section Commissioner of Athletics Rob Wigod.

Fox was also recognized by CSADA with the prestigious Norm Mackenzie Award in 2011.
